J. K. Rowling to pen first novel for adults

Author J. K. Rowling has announced plans to publish her first novel for adults, which will be "very different" from the Harry Potter books she is famous for.

The book will be published worldwide although no date or title has yet been released. "The freedom to explore new territory is a gift that Harry's success has brought me," Rowling said.

All the Potter books were published by Bloomsbury, but Rowling has chosen a new publisher for her debut into adult fiction. "Although I've enjoyed writing it every bit as much, my next book will be very different to the Harry Potter series, which has been published so brilliantly by Bloomsbury and my other publishers around the world," she said, in a statement. "I'm delighted to have a second publishing home in Little, Brown, and a publishing team that will be a great partner in this new phase of my writing life."
